For the past 20 years, Empty Bowls has raised funds and awareness for the Community Food Bank of Eastern Oklahoma. In 2016, Empty Bowls had over 1100 people attend and raised more than $570,000 to fight hunger and feed hope in eastern Oklahoma. Art plays a key role in this event, from auction items to the keepsake bowls created by the area's most talented artists. Each guest receives a keepsake bowl, which serves as a reminder of the too many empty bowls of hungry Oklahomans. Guests love their keepsake bowl and look forward to this aspect of Empty Bowls each year.

The Food Bank invites you be part of the fight this year to end hunger. There are several ways artists can get involved:

- Donate a piece of artwork to be sold. Artists are encouraged to submit their work of art in their preferred medium, whether it is drawing, painting, sculpture, woodturning, printmaking, digital graphics, ceramics, visual design , graphic design, collage, jewelry or photography
- Donate keepsake bowls- these bowls range in size and color but usually consist of 1lb of clay each.

Please complete the participation form on the back of this page and mail or email it to Taylor Leonard at the Community Food Bank of Eastern Oklahoma by Friday, March 3, 2017. This is to let the Food Bank know to expect your item and allow us to plan accordingly. All pieces must be delivered to the Food Bank by Monday, April 3rd to guarantee participation.

EMPTY BOWL TICKETS

Participating artists have the opportunity to purchase one discount ticket at $40 to Empty Bowls. Additional tickets can be purchased for $75 each.

Please note the dress code is business casual attire, complimentary valet parking and free self-serve parking available. Dinner is soup and salad. Gluten free and vegetarian choices will be available.

Thank you for your consideration. This event would not be possible without the community's support. Questions? Know someone else we should invite? Please contact Taylor Leonard at tleonard@okfoodbank.org or 918-936-4544.
